

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURES

Disclosed is a string lamps device that is composed of a plurality of illuminant devices through series, parallel, and series and parallel connection.

- 5 At least one of the illuminant devices is function type illuminant device, in which a default control device is provided inside the lamp holder. The control device can bring radial transition effect separately, and exhibit special radial transition effect when plugged into a pre-determined modeling frame together with other illuminant devices.

10